CHURCH UPDATES

Easter Family Event

Palm Sunday, April 10th, following worship

Everyone is invited to brunch on Palm Sunday after worship, which will be followed by a Scavenger Hunt. We will also have supplies for families to make a Resurrection Garden. We request you to sign up by April 3rd, so we can plan the appropriate food and supplies. A sign up sheet will be available after worship, or you can sign up by calling the office. Let's all join in and celebrate Easter together on Palm Sunday.

Maundy Thursday Service April 14, 7:00 pm

Communion will be served.

Good Friday Service, April 15th, 7:00 pm

Have you wondered what might have happened if Peter ran into Judas after the crucifixion? Why was Pontius Pilate so undecided about the fate of Jesus? Perhaps his wife was influencing him. How might a conversation between the mothers of Jesus and Judas have gone after Jesus was laid in the tomb?

Answers to these questions will be enacted by First Church members during short dramas on Good Friday's evening service. Musical anthems will inspire listeners between dramatic scenes. Join us for this entertaining and thought provoking service at 7:00 pm on April 15th.

MISSIONS FOR APRIL

SUPPLY CLOSET & FOOD BOX White Items

CHANGE FOR CHANGE Triumph Center

Mission: The mission of the center is to empower peers and help them improve their well-being and their quality of life through education, advocacy, and support. The center provides a central location for information on mental illness and recovery for individuals, family members, and the public and to fight the stigma of mental illness through community outreach and community involvement.

Because of the Stonewall Endowment Fund, I was able to purchase 325 books for the kids at Woodbury school. Each child will have a book to take home and share with family. These books are in English so hopefully other family members who aren't fluent in English will learn from the books too.

Missions also donated $500 to Riverside Cemetery to help with extra expenses for their fence replacement.
Thanks for your support, Barb Matya
